

I am completely against the idea that a new LPFM station could take priority over my KLOVE radio station. KLOVE provides contemporary christian music that was not available until KLOVE's broadcast. No other station meets this need and offers the programming KLOVE offers for my area. Without the inspiration of KLOVE we would not have the freedom to choose this type of family friendly programming. KLOVE meets an otherwise unmet need in my city.